Reconciliation: Sat. 4:45-5:45pm - Baptisms and Weddings by appointment

12th September 24th Sunday of the Year - B

Isaiah 50:5-9

James 2:14-18

Mark 8:27-35

Peter is right when he calls Jesus the Christ. Jesus shows that if we accept this we are called to act. To take up our cross, stand up to the world for the Lord is our vindicator. A faith that does not act in the world is not in full communion with Christ. In following the example of the disciples and Christ we show our faith is fully alive.

Psalm Response: I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

Gospel Acclamation – Alleluia, alleluia! I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, says the Lord; no one can come to the Father except through me. Alleluia!

19th September 25th Sunday of the Year - B

Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

James 3:16 - 4:3

Mark 9:30-37

There is division in the world. People want to be greater than each other and through jealousy lay traps for the virtuous. Even the disciples wondered who was the greatest among them. All this is because the human heart is divided. Only when we let ourselves to be taught by God, as a little child would, do we become pure of heart.

Psalm Response: The Lord upholds my life.

Gospel Acclamation – Alleluia, alleluia! I am the light of the world, says the Lord, anyone who follows me will have the light of life. Alleluia!

26th September 26th Sunday of the Year - B

Numbers 11:25-29

James 2:1-5 James 5:1-6

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

The Spirit of the Lord is offered to all. There is no inner circle of faith that the Spirit is confined to. The elders in the desert and the man working in the name of Christ show they have the Spirit in them. If only we all did! That was the prayer of Moses and is the wish of Christ. If we were there would be no injustice in the world and no more sin.

Psalm Response: the precepts of the Lord gladden the heart.

Gospel Acclamation – Alleluia, alleluia! Your word is truth, O Lord, consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

Statement of Bishop Alan for Education Sunday, 2021

Education Sunday is a day on which can we focus on the wonderful work that is done in Catholic schools up and down the country. The last year has been a challenging time for all, as we have had to face the full impact of the pandemic and find new ways to live and work. Only time will show the full impact of the days that our children have had to stay at home and try to study. There are, I fear, some areas of inequality in the provision of the pupils' learning, which may impinge on their development for some time. Having said that however, I know that the schools in the diocese have worked tirelessly to mitigate the effects of the pandemic on the children. On behalf of the diocese, I offer my deep gratitude to our Catholic schools for all that they have done and achieved during the pandemic.

When the Catholic hierarchy was re-established in the ninetieth century, one of the first actions was to establish schools to support the Catholic community and help them overcome the many obstacles, including illiteracy, in the way of so many people. In our times the call to make Education a priority has not diminished in any way. As your bishop I heed the call of Pope Leo XIII given over a hundred years ago when he called on the bishops of the world to carry on "making the young your chief care; press onward in every way your work; and cultivate with enthusiasm and hopefulness whatever good seeds you find: for God, who is rich in mercy will give the increase."

In recent times some of our schools have had to face hostile approaches from those who do not share our vision for Catholic education. They would want to influence the direction of travel for their own purposes rather than for the benefit of the children and young people in our Catholic schools. Pope Francis writes that "Education is an enterprise that demands cooperation on the part of all involved – the family, the school and social, cultural and religious institutions." A positive way of achieving this cooperation which, in turn, furthers the vision and tradition of those pioneers, is for our schools to work more closely together by joining Catholic Multi Academy Trusts (CMATs). Whilst this may be in line with thinking coming out of national Government it is also genuinely my firm belief that this is the best future for our schools. It is an opportunity for schools to work together actively and formally to shape the Catholic education system in their locality. It is this approach that will enable high standards of Catholic education to be maintained and where schools can contribute more widely as beacons of good practice in the local community. Indeed, where CMATs have been established in our diocese benefits have already been identified, including financial savings, greater inter-school support and renewal of the mission they share as Catholic schools.

As the pandemic recedes and a growing sense of normality returns, I know that we will be able to move forward collaboratively with the wonderful work of enabling our young people to reach their full potential. I encourage all associated with our Catholic schools, as Pope Francis has said, to “persevere with courage and tenacity”. Once again, thank you to all who work in and support Catholic education whether as pupils, staff, governors or parents. I will keep you in my prayers and ask that you join me in praying for the flourishing of our Catholic School communities.

Yours in Christ and Mary,
Bishop Alan, sm
Bishop of Brentwood

Parish Food Bank

Over the past few months there have been a number of meetings to discuss and plan the setting up of a Food Bank in our parish. We have received a grant to help start this very important venture, in recent weeks some members of the parish and the priests have visited other Food Banks to see how they minister to those in need. We have received a great deal of very helpful information that will inform our planning. As we move nearer to starting this we are asking the member so of the parish community to consider how they may help to set this up and keep it running. We will, of course, be needing donations of food and other items but most importantly we will need a good number of people to help with the setting up and distribution of the food. At this moment in time we are looking at running the Food Bank of a Sunday after Mass. One reason for this is that as far as we know no other Food Bank is open on a Sunday.

We are now in a position to receive any food donations to get this project off the ground. We are in need of tinned products : Meat, fish, vegetables, soup, fruit, beans packet products: Cereals, biscuits, pasta ,spaghetti, noodles, pulses If possible with at least 6 months shelf life indicated on the packaging. Items may be left at the back of the Church in the boxes provided.
